

The Visual Experience, p.266 “The Renaissance”

Directions: Please read the text and look at the pictures. Remember to read the captions under the pictures. When you are done reading, use the key words on the next page to fill in the missing words. Please use pencil. (4PTS Each)

The Renaissance began in the _____. Renaissance is a French word which translates as _____. During this time Leonardo _____ explored the fields of optics, mechanics and _____. Christopher Columbus set out to explore the Americas and Nicolaus _____ a polish astronomer theorized that the earth may revolve around the _____. Christians preserved and copied Roman statues as the Romans had preserved and copied _____ statues. Filippo Brunelleschi built The Dome in Florence, Italy, by studying the _____ which was built by the Greeks. It is still the _____ dome in the world. The statue in the picture on page 267 is Saint _____ in a naturalistic pose. On p. 268 the picture depicts a painting by _____. Jesus is in the center of the painting called The _____. The buildings are three dimensional because the space they are in creates _____. This may be the first painting to use one point linear perspective. The High Renaissance lasted about _____ years. Raphael painted The School of Athens in the late 1400’s. This painting depicts _____, Plato and Aristotle, the great Greek philosophers.

Leonardo da Vinci painted The Last Supper, which depicts Christ in the center of the _____. Michelangelo sculpted _____ and painted the ceiling of the Sistine Chapel on page 272. The Protestant Reformation began in 1547. During the Reformation, the printing press was invented and copies of the bible became available to those who did not know Latin. The Baroque style began in the 1600’s. _____ is a famous Baroque artist who used contrast. He painted the Adoration of the Maji, in 1646. This is the time when the Catholic Church and Protestant church became separate. Rembrandt was a well known painter during the Enlightenment. During this period of art the first _____ was used to view the planets by Galileo. Oil paintings created the illusion of space and naturalistic detail so well it seems very real. The painting by Peter De Hooch shows a dog, a mother and a _____. After the Enlightenment, the next styles of art were Rococo and _____. On P. 282 the artist Delacroix depicted a _____ in the Middle East in 1863. The State Capital Building in Richmond _____ is an example of Neoclassicism. The other 2 ism styles are _____ and Impressionism. Circle which of these styles is used to build the NM State Round House Building?

- | | | |
|-------------|--------------------------|--------------------|
| 1. Venice | 9. Pantheon | 18. Virginia |
| 2. Greek | 10. sun | 19. Castle |
| 3. 1400’s | 11. Tribute Money | 20. Moses |
| 4. tallest | 12. anatomy | 21. table |
| 5. Mark | 13. rebirth | 22. Realism |
| 6. Masaccio | 14. depth | 23. Telescope |
| 7. Da Vinci | 15. Neoclassicism | 24. Socrates |
| 8. Jesus | 16. Copernicus | 25. Rembrandt |
| | 17. child | |